will affect three railway companies and three lines of steamers.

The rail service between Boston and St. John is ever the tracks of the Hoston and Maine from Boston to Portland, the Main Central from Vanceboro, and the Canadian Pacific from Vanceboro to St. John.

The steamship lines are the Ea/stern Steamship company, operating steamers between St. John, Eastport, Me., Lubec, Me., and Boston, the Doriniton Atlantic Railway system, which has steamers running between Boston and Yarmouth, N. S., with a railway from Tarmouth to Truro and Halfar, and a steamer line from Digby to St. John, and the Plant Steamship company, whose steamers ply between Halifar, and Boston.

The advances were agreed upon at a moeting of the representatives of the various lines affected held in Boston. Epernay, April 13.—Owing partly to the unrelaxing vigilance of 15,000 troops and partly to the vote in the chamber of deputies last night, nullifying the action of the senate with reference to the delimitation of the champagne district, comparative calm now prevails in the department of Marne and there is every indication that the populace will act with more moderation from this on.

The leaders in the movement issued a manifesto tonight appealing to their adherents to await in calm confidence the deliberation of the council of state, to which Premier Monis decided to refer the question.

Commissario's Quarters Blown Up.

About fifteen minutes after the firing on the town began the headquarters of the commissario blew up with a terrific report.

It is not known whether a robel hul-let struck the magazine at the head-quarters where dynamite was recently stored, or the federals blew up the magazine to prevent the rebels getting supplies.

The rebels attacked from the west. After detraining just below the town, they marched to the west and then with little short rushes took shelter benind the railroad embankments, resting the rifles over the rails as they shot into the town.

OF THOMAS JEFFERSON

Speeches by President Schurman of Cornell and Alderman, of U. of V.

Charlettesyllie, Va., April 13.—
Speeches by President Jacob G. Schurman of Cornell university, President E. A. Alderman and others marked to-day's celebration of the 16th anniversary of the birth of Thomas Jefferson. The celebration was held in connection with the annual Founders day exercises at the University of Virginia. Many telegrams were received from alumni sending congretulations and a check for $5000 pres-downent for the university notary announced.

President Alderman arraigned the atrenuous competition of universities for students, whose most sorious result, he said, was that in many states state universities had been led into a betrayal of their duty to the secondary school system.

President Schurman discussed Jefferson and Public Policies of Today.

Hattie's age is some fen summers and her weight three tons. When she has an ache the pain is proportionate to her tonnage, and the remedy must be proportionate to her pain. This is the dose prescribed for her by Keeper Snyder: Laudanum, two ounces; iln-seed oil, two quarts; spiritus frumenti, two quarts.

two quarts.

It took a wedge between her jaws and a block and tackle to get the dose into her, but when it reached the spot the increase in her good nature was noticeable.
